Vista Maria partners with the University of Michigan-Dearborn for “Abuse Awareness Week”

DEARBORN HEIGHTS, Mich. – Vista Maria, a center to heal victimized girls and women with best-practice treatment programs designed to meet their unique needs while serving other vulnerable children and families within Southeast Michigan, and The University of Michigan-Dearborn are partnering for Abuse Awareness Week, April 2 through April 6, 2012.

The awareness campaign, “Rebuilding Lives,” focuses on sexual and domestic abuse since this is a persistent issue that has become a social problem and threatens many families and individuals, especially girls and women, who are often the victims of such abuse.

The entire week is packed with events to raise awareness about domestic and sexual abuse.
